Pitch: After many operations, Dr Fabian Kroiß (Oliver Franck) is in rehab recovering from his serious car accident. Dr Sarah König (Caroline Frier) does not leave her loved one's side. Fabian asks his sister Isa to help out in the practice so that the people of Wiesenkirchen can continue to receive good medical care during this time. She left home 20 years ago after a heated argument with her father and now works as a dedicated paediatrician with a special flair for her patients. Isa is determined to reconcile with her father and replace her brother in the practice. However, the self-confident young doctor has another reason for her return: to escape from her unpredictable husband. In mountain rescuer Lukas (Michael Raphael Klein), Isa quickly finds a friend in whom she can confide - and who doesn't leave her heart untouched either.

Pitch: The shipyard owned by Bogdan Mazur (Andreas Leupold) and his daughter Natalia (Hanna Hilsdorf) is celebrating the pagan Galinder cult with an intoxicating party. When the boat builder Tomasz (Tomasz Bednarek) is found drowned the next morning, Inspector Zofia Kowalska (Karolina Lodyga) suspects an accident. For forensic scientist Viktoria Wex (Claudia Eisinger), who doesn't believe in coincidences, the case seems more complex: Tomasz's wife Jagoda (Julika Jenkins) had an unexplained boating accident months ago. Since then, the kayaker has been in a wheelchair. Viktoria recognises a connection with the cold case and discovers evidence of Tomasz's murder. While the forensic scientist - initially without the help of village policeman Leon (Sebastian Hülk), who is on leave - delves into a covered-up secret with her investigations, the Mazurs fear for the future of their shipyard dynasty.
