Pitch: Romy Heiland is surprised by a search of her law firm: senior public prosecutor Dr Tümmler accuses her of embezzling client funds - and soon: money laundering (!). Romy knows that Tümmler should not be an adversary and has no idea of the dilemma she is creating for Tümmler, who sympathises with her. Ben takes over her defence. Is the weak point in the firm perhaps Tilly, who has made a mistake? Romy has little time to adjust to the new situation, as another drastic change in her life is about to take place, which she finds out about by chance: Her family is bigger than she thought - she has a sister, Serafina (Jane Chirwa). Karin has a lot to explain to Romy; she is alone in this, as Paul has been living abroad for some time. Tilly Vogel and Ringo Holländer, who now has a permanent place in the law firm team, provide stability in Romy's professional life.

Pitch: Kristina Lurz (Silke Bodenbender), recently appointed mayor of a small town somewhere in Germany, sees herself on her way into 'big' politics - the Bundestag, at least. It would be enough for her husband Lennart (Christian Erdmann) to become head of IT at the largest local employer, but they have put Rico (Joshua Seelenbinder), a younger man with more elbow room, in front of him. When the German government is looking for pilot projects for Indian IT specialists in Germany, Kristina sees this as the ideal solution for them both: international attention for their town and a chance for Lennart to score points in his company. But now, of all times, a virus paralyses all the town's computers. A blackmailer demands a million, otherwise all the data will be irretrievably lost. Lennart's boss Dr Joachim Kraft (Jörg Schüttauf) is asked to help the city out with the demanded sum. Soon everyone is suspicious of everyone else, and it turns out that many people in the town have secrets - not least the mayor's husband and her son Felix (Leo Knizka).

Pitch: A comedy-drama set in a small-town cinema during one eventful Friday night screening from hell. Over the course of one evening, the film follows the travails of beleaguered cinema owner Earl Clancy (Morgan) as he faces a myriad of disasters, any one of which could sink him. Drawing from writer/director David Gleeson's own experience growing up in a family of cinema owners where his father's 78-year career marked the longest in the cinema business in Ireland, if not the world, One Night Only is a love letter to a peculiarly Irish cinema experience, which was as much about connecting with people as it was about the movie.
