Pitch: Romy Heiland is surprised by a search of her law firm: senior public prosecutor Dr Tümmmler accuses her of embezzling client funds - and soon: money laundering (!). Romy knows that Tümmmler should not be an adversary and has no idea of the dilemma she is creating for Tümmmler, who sympathises with her. Ben takes over her defence. Is the weak point in the firm perhaps Tilly, who has made a mistake? Romy has little time to adjust to the new situation, as another drastic change in her life is about to take place, which she finds out about by chance: Her family is bigger than she thought - she has a sister, Serafina (Jane Chirwa). Karin has a lot to explain to Romy; she is alone in this, as Paul has been living abroad for some time. Tilly Vogel and Ringo Holländer, who now has a permanent place in the law firm team, provide stability in Romy's professional life.

Regie: Stefan Ruzowitzky

Cast: Clive Owen

Cast 02: Alex Pettyfer

Cast 03: Karl Markovics

DOP: Benedict Neuenfels

Pitch: Set on the brink of World War II in Berlin, the true story unfolds in a city turned into a powder keg after the assassination of a German attaché in Paris, which is wrongfully branded a "Jewish terrorist attack" by Nazi propaganda. Pettyfer plays Kai Lehmann, a young and impressionable police officer, who, alongside his superior Lieutenant Krützfeld, played by Owen, navigates the turbulent streets of Berlin as citizens turn violently against the perceived "enemy within," descending on Jewish neighborhoods. Markovics portrays Isaac Roth, a Jewish man caught up in the day's terror as he is wrongfully accused of murder. As chaos engulfs Berlin over a harrowing twenty-four hours, Krützfeld and Lehmann are confronted with a profound moral dilemma: uphold the system or take a stand for what is right. Kristallnacht translates as Night of Broken Glass, a reference to the thousands of shops, businesses and synagogues destroyed by the Nazis across the two nights in November 1938.

Cast 02: Luàna Bajrami

DOP: Mathieu Kauffmann

Pitch: 23 year-old Guido shoots deer from a 4x4 with his friends Fausto and Mauro, in the woods in northern Italy. After this hunt, the three rush to Kiss, the largest disco in the region. Guido, an arrogant seducer and dominator, is right at home. But then he sees 17-year-old Albanian Sonia in a group of teenagers, a girl he met a few days earlier. He fell in love. He was rocked. Neither Guido nor his entourage can accept a relationship with a foreigner. Guido works in his father's garage and grew up in the rough Lombardy region of factory farms and immigrant exploitation. Behind the confident and aggressive façade is a troubled young man. To forget Sonia, he takes part in bloodier and bloodier hunts. Marika, a child who lives near the woods, watches the bloodbaths. Distressed, she curses Guido. Attacked by a deer, he falls into a coma. When he wakes up, a few days later, he isn't the same - he is exposed and more vulnerable than ever. The violence has become unbearable.
